

Expectations of a Ready, Respectful and Responsible Ram

	Group Work	Individual Work	Transition	Quizzes/Tests	Arrival	Dismissal
What should I expect from myself?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Contribute positively • complete your work • header on paper 	Header on paper	Stay seated, raise hand to speak, promptly access materials for new task, follow all written directions	Silent work, eyes on your own paper, show all work, use all time given, go over all answers, header on paper	Walk in quietly and gather materials, read the board for the agenda, begin any bell-work	When the bell rings, pay attention to teacher for further instructions, walk out of the room when dismissed by teacher
What should others expect of me?	Take turns talking, give compliments to their contributions, stay on topic	Always raise hand to speak, stay seated	Be patient when passing materials, remain silent, stay seated	Always raise hand, stay seated, work silently	Walk to desk, say "excuse me" as you maneuver to your desk	Wait for the bell to pack up belongings, take your time exiting the room
How should I handle property in the classroom?	Return desks to proper location, return all supplies borrowed, throw away trash, turn in assignment, handle textbook properly	Write on paper, handle textbook properly, keep hands/feet/and personal belonging to your own space, tuck belonging under desk	Hand papers respectfully to others, keep hands, feet, and personal belongings in your own space	Sharpen all pencil prior, tuck belongings under desk, keep hands, feet, and personal belongings in your own space	All papers will be picked up as your enter, materials needed for the day are on your desk, all other materials are under desk, sharpen any pencils if needed	Pick up all belongings around your area, return all property that was borrowed, return desks to rows