Petty Officer First Class Zachary T. Rivera Maritime Enforcement Specialist

ME1 Rivera joined out of Salt Lake City, UT. He grew up in Green River Wyoming, where he spent his adolescence racing mountain bikes, rock climbing, hunting and fishing. While in the Coast Guard, he spent a significant amount of his time training with and deploying with his teams, and takes the utmost pride in training his teammates on skills necessary to thrive in austere conditions.

Petty Officer Rivera has the Coast Guard knowledge and experience to answer questions about multiple facets of Coast Guard life, and as a recruiter, his personal mission statement is to educate the public on the missions the great people of the USCG conduct every day.

Join him and RO Dallas on October 16 to learn about the Coast Guard
